Beggar's Prophecy

Verse 1 Frozen sun and it's raining black ice cubes
The white dove is hunting all the lions in the streets
One drinks dogs while the milkman is still laughing
The devil is sliding down the rainbow on and on

Bridge 1 No one listened to the prophecy the beggar made
Nobody cared about the message in the sand

Chorus 1 Watch out the final battle now is coming
When hate is on to beat the love
All the hearts will die and turn to stone
And satan is fighting all the angels up above

Verse 2 An old lady is gonna hollow out a pumpkin
Then she will crawl into and lay down just to die
The frightening priest is gonna look for shelter
He is crying at the shoulder of a whore

Bridge 2 Everybody felt so safe of all the wealth
They're still holding the disaster in their hands

Chorus 2 Watch out the final battle now is coming
When hate is on to beat the love
All the hearts will die and turn to stone
And satan is fighting all the angels up above

Chorus 3 Hope for tomorrow is only an illusion
The bloody present will blow us into past
Dwarf's and demons are waiting for their victims
And the devil is sliding down the rainbow on and on
