Daddys Darling

Verse 1

Sally could not fall asleep
So she looked out off the window
As almost every night she heard her mother cry
And sally prayed to god:
This time daddy might not come to her

Bridge 1

Monnlight softly touched her face
Her mind rose high up to the stars
The gentle wind started to run away

Chorus 1

She's always been daddy's darling - his lovely girl
The sun is always shining and the house is painted white

It's such a perfect village - tranquil and clean
The sheriff rules, the preacher prays, and everything's allright

Bridge 2

There's no way - there's no need to stay
Sally you ... have gotta go
You shouldn't take it any longer...
... sally ... bang the entrancedoor and leave that place behind

Verse 2

Sally jumped out off her bed
At least she knew it's time to leave
She fetched her bag and packed the basicstuff she needs
And sally prayed to good: This time the sheepdog might not bark

Bridge 3

Sally walked along the mainroad
Past the schoolyard and the church
The squeaking weathercock showed her which way to go
